Disabled Artists Bring New Skills To Home Schoolers

Run out of home-schooling ideas and looking for something creative? How about being inspired by the Mouth & Foot Painting Artists, artists who paint with their mouth and feet due to physical disability. The artists have created fun online tutorials to inspire a new skill, including a 'Rainbow Hedgehog' tutorial from Rosie Moriarty Simmonds, OBE. mfpa.uk

The Puglia Hotel Kick-Starting Business

One Puglia hotel is hoping to kick-start business while giving back to health heroes with a 'Buy One, Give One' initiative. The Paragon 700 Boutique Hotel & Spa in Puglia is joining in with MMGY Global's initiative to allow people to advance book a holiday to get money going back into the tourism industry and in return for every two night guest booking the hotel will be gifting a one-night hotel stay to a healthcare worker. Find out more about the initiative at buyonegiveonestay.com.

Hope Around The World

Hong Kong has contained its second wave of Covid-19, with zero local infections for more than two weeks. The country has recorded just 15 new cases since 20 April, all of which were people who had recently travelled. (Source: CNN). Meanwhile, New Zealand Director-General of Health Dr Ashley Bloomfield has announced a second day of no new cases or deaths from Covid-19 in the country. (Source: RNZ)
