If you're seeking a European getaway filled with sun and mouth-watering cuisine, you can never go wrong with Italy. For true Italian paradise, you should explore the off-the-beaten path. "In Italy, the Amalfi Coast and Capri are always popular of course, but Puglia, Sicily, and Ischia are trending, particularly for those who want to combine food, art, culture, and beach," said Biggs Bradley. One of Puglia's newest hotels that just opened this year is Paragon 700 Boutique Hotel & Spa, which has stunning architecture and decor throughout.
