tourism body Green Pearls, and nature is also at the heart of the hotel's design. From room furnishings made from local materials to the restaurant produce grown in Maslina's own garden, the hotel offers an array of wellness, adventure and culinary experiences that are both luxurious and mindful. Whether you explore the spa or lounge next to the infinity pool, relaxation is mandatory.

Paragon 700, Italy

Best for: group holidays

A former Puglian palace, Paragon 700 has been restored to perfection. Inside the red brick building are magnificent cathedral ceilings, traditional fireplaces, and even a spa featuring a natural whirlpool dug into the ground. It's intimate, with just 11 rooms (ideal for group holidays) and there's a verdant garden, citrus grove and swimming pool to cool off in, while the hotel's restaurant serves exquisite gourmet dishes in a centuries-old vault stone chamber. A five minute walk from the main square of Ostuni, this boutique hotel is a great base for exploring Italy's beautiful White City and the region's stunning beaches — guests have priority access to loungers at Paragon 700's sister beach club, P-Beach.
