Hôtel Particulier Villeroy, France

Adding to an ultra-exclusive list of properties in Courchevel, St Barths, Saint-Jean-Cap-Ferrat and London, Le Collection's latest outpost is in Paris's 8th arrondissement, right in the middle of the city's Golden Triangle. Hôtel Particulier Villeroy is housed in a former mansion, built in 1908 by Ernest Rahir for Nicolas Lucien Villeroy (son of Maurice, of Villeroy & Boch fame). Discreetly blending into quiet Rue Jean-Goujon, it looks - and feels - much more a home than a hotel, targeting guests who value privacy and want to feel like residents rather than visitors.

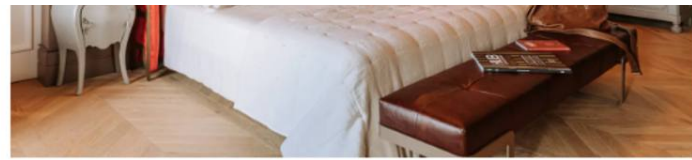

The Restaurant, called Trente-Trois, is for residents only and is led by Michelin-starred chef Sébastien Sanjou. A 24-hour butler service is also available to guests, and there's a spa hidden in the basement, which uses products by L'Officine Universelle Buly. Words by Lucia Ferigutti.

Paragon 700 Boutique Hotel & Spa, Italy

Puglia's latest boutique hotel, Paragon 700, had its grand opening set back by COVID-19 but finally flung its doors open for this first time in June. Just 11 artfully decorated rooms are housed within the restored red palace, contrasting colourfully with the whitewashed buildings of the surrounding village of Ostuni. Within the red brick façade there's a lush garden and swimming pool, a restaurant headed by chef Giovanni Cerroni, the protégé of Michelin-starred Paulo Airaud, and a spa to boot. Guests can also expect curated experiences tailor-made to their preferences, from day trips on the hotel's private yacht, to wine tastings, motorbike tours and cooking classes to fully embrace the local culture.

Given its petite size, it's more than feasible for guests to consider taking over the entire hotel to themselves for an ultra exclusive summer holiday.
