Space and privacy will still be important when we can start to travel safely again. Around the world, we can expect to see an increasing number of travelers favoring remote, wilderness areas over busy hotspots.

If lockdown has given you the taste for a quieter life, here are just a few remote villas, houses and hotels to consider for an international holiday getaway.

Paragon 700 Boutique Hotel & Spa

Puglia, Italy

In the heart of Puglia's White City, Ostuni, sits the new Paragon 700 Boutique Hotel & Spa. The elegantly restored hotel has just 11 individually curated rooms, making it the ideal property for an exclusive takeover to reunite with family and friends post COVID lockdown. Enjoy the swimming pool surrounded by lush gardens, a rare green space in the heart of the city that offers a spacious and tranquil oasis.

Indulge in gourmet meals at Restaurant 700, or try a creative cocktail at the hotel's eclectic bar. There are ample experiences to choose from; voyages on the hotel's private boat, wine tastings, motorbike tours and cooking classes. For relaxation, try treatment at the private spa. You may also reserve a sun lounger at P-Beach, Paragon 700's sister beach club.

Paragon 700 Boutique Hotel & Spa has a private underground car park, so guests can come and go in their own private vehicles. Private jets can fly into Brindisi (30-min drive away) or Bari (1-hour drive away).
