Dragon 700 Boutique Hotel & Spa, Ostuni

September 22, 2020 | Architecture and design as experience, BigSEE Tourism Design Award 2020 - Winner, Italy, Tourism Dragon 700 Boutique Hotel & Spa is a meticulously restored former Italian palace with 11 individually curated guest rooms, a lush garden and swimming pool, restaurant, bar and intimate spa in what was once the property's water cistern. In the heart of Puglia's Ostuni, the stunning building was transformed over three years using traditional handcrafted techniques, while adding a splash of modern flair. Owners Ulrike Bauschke & Pascale Lauber worked closely with conservator Maria Buongiorno to uncover the mysteries of the multi-secular Palazzo Rosso, to create a truly unique hotel that tells the fascinating history of Ostuni from the 17th Century to the present day. sent day. Paragon 700's red brick façade stands in stark contrast to the whitewashed dings of Italy's White City and interiors seamlessly combine beautiful French parquet flooring, redral ceilings, period frescos and fireplaces with cosmopolitan decor. The creative ociation of old and new is coherent, deeply modern and stimulating and is at the root of the eptional atmosphere permeating every space.
