Traveling in recent times has been forced into our imagination for the most part. So, what if we could make that a little more fun? Why not taste our way around the world? Better yet, I thought to myself, why not drink our way around the world? During lockdown, I've discovered a range of new cocktails from different countries around the world, and I've had way too much fun making them and trying them out! Here's my list of cocktails from around the world you can try at home.

Vecchio Minatore, Italy

Head barman, Leonardo Giorgini, at Paragon 700, makes an amazing Vecchio Minatore. Named after a particular cut of diamond, like Paragon itself, the warming whisky and sweet honey notes are the perfect flavors to transport you to the sultry shores of Puglia, Italy. Mix up the below ingredients to try making it at home.
