Brides and grooms-to-be will opt for an exclusive wedding in the charming garden of the hotel, surrounded by the smell of orange trees in the nearby orchard. Other choices include the magnificent Ostuni Cathedral with its baroque architecture or the St Francesco di Assisi Church, both situated in the historic centre of the White City, accompanied by a post-wedding reception at the hotel.

With only 11 individually built rooms and suites, Paragon 700 is perfect for couples looking for an intimate wedding with the nearest and dearest in the most idyllic setting. Standing in stark contrast to the town's whitewashed houses, the former palace's red brick façade cocoons an unusual, rich garden and swimming pool, offering happy couples and their guests a private and peaceful oasis just a five-minute walk from Ostuni's main square. Inside, the quintessentially Puglian property was infused with a cool contemporary flair with trendy interiors by ID Living-Pascale PL's Lauber, which exudes elegance and sophistication. Love birds will escape to their own exclusive Paragon Suite, featuring seven-metre-high cathedral ceilings, a romantic sunken bathtub and a huge open fireplace with two doors leading to a large terrace with a garden.

On the wedding day itself, enjoy a gourmet meal featuring excellent local ingredients. Enjoy your wedding breakfast of dreams with exquisite local vintages from the hotel's impressive wine cellar. As the evening approaches, guests will head to the hotel's eclectic Bar 700 to
