Paragon 700, Puglia, Italy

Set in a renovated red palazzo in the "white city" of Ostuni, this luxury boutique was always going to stand out from the crowd. Not far from Brindisi in Puglia, the region that makes up the stiletto heel of the Italian boot, the hotel melds Italian charm with rooms finished with ornate fixtures and furniture from around the world.

High ceilings, sunken baths, fireplaces, balconies, orange and lemon orchards, private cruises - this place was made for reconnecting with your partner as only old romantics like the Italians know how.
