PUGLIA: Pascale Lauber and Ulrike Bauschke

Over the past 27 years, the life and business partners have renovated 16 properties together. Their most recent is Paragon 700, a former palace turned hotel in Ostuni, Puglia, which opened in 2020. 'Our partnership works well because we keep our roles separate. Pascale is the interior designer and architect, and takes ownership of everything design-led. I'm involved in the renovations and in charge of the finances.'

What is your favourite restaurant in the world?

'Our favourite restaurant is Chefs Warehouse at Beau Constantia, a vineyard in Cape Town, where we lived for 13 years. We often have the tapas-style menu to share; the southern Thai linefish is especially delicious.'

What is your favourite hotel to stay in?

'Our favourite hotel has to be Aman Tokyo. From the minimal design to the incredible food and views, it's the kind of place you want to stay at again and again.'
